Bessie's Bad Day

Bessie the cow hated flies. They buzzed around her all day long as she stood out in the field, eating her grass. Bessie had to constantly flick her tail back and forth to keep them from landing on her. But sometimes they would land on her and bite her. Being bitten made Bessie really mad, and she would smack at the flies with her tail. One day, as Bessie was flicking her tail at them, the flies buzzed towards Bessie's face. Furious, Bessie whipped her long tail forward after them. Just then she sneezed. Her eyes squeezed shut and her mouth opened for a moment, and when it closed, it closed right on her own tail! Ouch!
