

Good is a word that can be used too much. Other words can be used instead of good to make your writing more interesting.

Below is a paragraph that uses good too often. Rewrite the paragraph using other words that make sense instead of good.

My Day

When I woke up today, I knew it would be a good day. The weather was good, and I felt good. I ate a good breakfast of fruit and oatmeal. I was ready to go to school and make a good grade on my test. It was a good walk to school, but my good friend Casey walked with me. When we got to our classroom, we saw Mrs. Jackson looking good. She smiled in a good way. "I have a good surprise for you," she said. "The test has been canceled for good." We all cheered at this good news!

When I woke up today, I knew it would be a fine day. The weather was beautiful, and I felt great. I ate a healthy breakfast of fruit and oatmeal. I was ready to go to school and make an excellent grade on my test. It was a long walk to school, but my best friend Casey walked with me. When we got to our classroom, we saw Mrs. Jackson looking happy. She smiled in a nice way. "I have a lovely surprise for you," she said. "The test has been canceled forever." We all cheered at this wonderful news!
