

Name _____

John's Day

John had had a great day at the park with his friends. They had played all kinds of games, played on the playground and they had enjoyed the beautiful sunny weather. But now John wasn't so happy. His great day at the park was ruined and he was in a very bad mood.

What was one of the games that John and his friends played at the park?

How do you know this?

Why is John not happy anymore?

How do you know this?

If the text did not have any images with it, would you have been able to answer those questions? Why or why not?

Based on the text and the images, what do you know about John?

Name _____

John's Day

John had had a great day at the park with his friends. They had played all kinds of games, played on the playground and they had enjoyed the beautiful sunny weather. But now John wasn't so happy. His great day at the park was ruined and he was in a very bad mood.

What was one of the games that John and his friends played at the park?

Baseball

How do you know this?

Picture shows him playing

Why is John not happy anymore?

He is stuck in a rain storm

How do you know this?

Picture shows this

If the text did not have any images with it, would you have been able to answer those questions? Why or why not?

No. The story did not mention baseball or tell why he was suddenly unhappy.

Based on the text and the images, what do you know about John?

That he likes being with his friends, is happy playing baseball and doesn't like the rain.