

The topic sentence in a paragraph clearly states the main idea of the paragraph. While it is usually at the beginning of the paragraph, it also can be in the middle or end of it.

Example: Everyone should wear a life jacket when they are on a boat. Life jackets have been proven to save lives. No one can predict when an accident might happen. There may not be enough time in an emergency to put on a life jacket. But if you are already wearing it, it may save your life.

The topic sentence in the example is underlined. The rest of the sentences in the paragraph support the topic sentences.

Below are topics for paragraphs. Write a topic sentence for each topic.

1. Is playing sports fun?
2. What is the best pet?
3. Are bicycle helmets important?
4. Why should people vote?
5. Is it better to do homework right after school or after dinner?
6. Should movie theaters give discounts to children?
7. Is summer vacation too long?
8. Are grades important?
