

Name _____

DIRECTIONS: Choose the best conjunctive adverb from below to join each pair of sentences. Write each new sentence on the line.

1. That horse is high spirited. He is very energetic.

2. Jane will ride the dappled grey horse. She likes the black horse better.

3. That horse hates the water. He will cross the water if you guide with your heels.

4. When you approach a jump you have to squeeze the horse with your knees. You have to lift out of the saddle.

5. I have to wear my hard hat when I ride. My mother will not let me ride if I don't wear my hard hat.

COMMON CONJUNCTIVE ADVERBS

however

besides

otherwise

therefore

nevertheless

indeed

finally

still

then

consequently

ANSWERS

1. That horse is high spirited; therefore, he is very energetic.
2. Jane will ride the dappled grey horse; however (or still), she likes the black horse better.
3. That horse hates the water; still (or however), he will cross the water if you guide with your heels.
4. When you approach a jump you have to squeeze the horse with your knees; then, you have to lift out of the saddle.
5. I have to wear my hard hat when I ride; otherwise, my mother will not let me ride.