What was life like during the middle ages? How much do you know about it? Write down any questions that you have. Use a computer to do some research in preparation for writing a story set in the Middle Ages. Fill out the organizer below. When you have completed your research, and organized your thoughts, use the computer to write your story. Type at least three pages.

1. Who or what is your main character?

2. What do they want?

3. Where are they?

4. What does it look, smell, sound, feel and taste like in the middle ages?

5. How does your story begin?

6. What happens in the middle?

7. How does it end?
