

Name _____

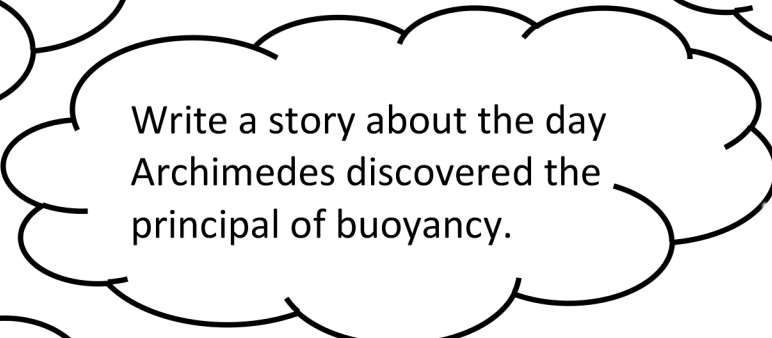

Choose one of the writing prompts. Conduct whatever research you feel is necessary. Then write at least one full page answering the prompt.

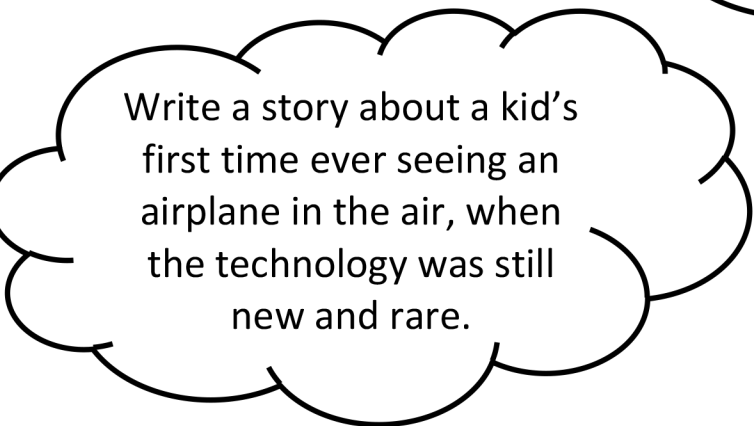

Write a story about a family going west during the California gold rush in the 1800s.

Write a story about what really happened to the lost princess Anastasia.

Write a story about the day Archimedes discovered the principal of buoyancy.

Write a story about a kid's first time ever seeing an airplane in the air, when the technology was still new and rare.

