

Name: _____

Active voice is different from passive voice. Active voice describes the action performed by the subject. When using passive voice, an action is being done to the subject in the sentence.

Here's an example:

Active Voice

Bobby mowed the lawn.

In this active voice sentence, Bobby is the subject.

Passive Voice

The lawn was mowed by Bobby.

In this passive voice sentence, the lawn is the subject.

Rewrite each sentence in active voice.

1. Dessert will be prepared by the children.
2. He was confused by the message.
3. The table was assembled by Uncle Mike.
4. The party was arranged by the staff.
5. The file was destroyed by the machine.
6. The barn was flooded by the storm.
7. The girl was injured by a car.
8. The bunny was fed by Sarah.

Name: _____

Active voice is different from passive voice. Active voice describes the action performed by the subject. When using passive voice, an action is being done to the subject in the sentence.

Here's an example:

Active Voice

Bobby mowed the lawn.

In this active voice sentence, Bobby is the subject.

Passive Voice

The lawn was mowed by Bobby.

In this passive voice sentence, the lawn is the subject.

Rewrite each sentence in active voice. ANSWER KEY

1. Dessert will be prepared by the children.

The children prepared dessert.

2. He was confused by the message.

The message confused him.

3. The table was assembled by Uncle Mike.

Uncle Mike assembled the table.

4. The party was arranged by the staff.

The staff arranged the party.

5. The file was destroyed by the machine.

The machine destroyed the file

6. The barn was flooded by the storm.

The storm flooded the barn

7. The girl was injured by a car.

The car injured the girl

8. The bunny was fed by Sarah.

Sarah fed the bunny.