

Name _____

Date _____

The series of events in a story is called the plot. It usually begins with an introduction, and then the rising action (other events) leads to the climax (usually a problem), which leads to the falling action (other events) and a resolution.

Directions: After reading or listening to a short story, get into groups of 3 and write out the plot using the chart.

Climax (problem)

---

---

---

---

---

Rising Action (other events)

---

---

---

---

---

Falling Action (other events)

---

---

---

---

---

Introduction

---

---

---

---

---

Resolution

---

---

---

---

---

