

Name _____

Polar Who?

Read the following passage or listen to your teacher read the passage below. Can you determine what in the text supports the new name for the polar bear?

The cute baby polar bear in the zoo was given a nickname right after he was born. His nickname is "Polar Trouble". The problem with the nickname is the baby polar bear was getting into too much trouble!

Oh no!! He was tossing things and making a fuss. So, we have to give him a new name that may help turn this behaviour around.

Also, the baby polar bear does need a name and not just a nickname. Using a nickname forever sounds like a bad idea. The visitors to the zoo do not like the nickname. So, gather around. Let's give this baby polar a new name!

What are the reasons the author gives for giving the baby polar bear a new name?
