

Mrs. Anderson's kindergarten class has a class turtle named Poky. The children just love to feed, water, and play with Poky. There is a school break coming up at school. Mrs. Anderson asked if any of the students wanted to take Poky home with them over the break. Of course everyone did, so Mrs. Anderson drew a name from a jar and picked Marci's name. Marci was so excited about getting to take Poky home for the holidays. Marci was going to take really good care of Poky. At the end of the day Marci packed up Poky's bowl and food and left school feeling very happy.
